The round metal gong or tinig is a traditional instrument used in Cordillera. It is made of metal and is used to signal the start of a ceremony or to announce the arrival of a guest. The profile of a person blowing a "tanggayub" (a traditional Cordilleran instrument) is a symbol of the Cordillera region. The lines that shape the mountains, the rice terraces, roads and rivers are symbols of the Cordillera region. All the symbols come from the Cordillera region.
