The round metal gong of the Cordillera whose quality as "gongsi" is a symbol of the shared past, its culture that has been passed on from generation to another.
 The profile of a person blowing a "longguyub" represents a community being called to an important meeting or action.
 The lines that shape the mountains, the sea, rivers, schools and fields represent the Cordillera's rich and diverse environment and its people.
 All the symbols combined represent unity and harmony of its people with culture and environment in beating the gong for sustainable development.
